

Anticipated Opening
Interim Director of Special Services
Date available: July 1, 2023

The South Hackensack School District seeks for the 2023-2024 school year for the position of Director of Special Services. The district seeks a professional who will enhance the services and programs provided to the students requiring special services by:

Candidates must meet all of the following requirements:

- Demonstrating a strong knowledge of special education state and federal laws, regulations, procedures, and reporting requirements.
- Leading all responsibilities within the Special Services Department.
- Promoting, sustaining, and improving inclusive education practice throughout the school.
- Making data-driven decisions and the use of evidence-based practices for increasing student achievement.
- Providing administrative oversight of district programs involving students requiring special services.
- Evaluating general and special education personnel.
- Coordinating and collaborating with district staff and outside consultants/agencies.
- Ability to work effectively with students, staff, administration, and parents in the areas of special services.
- Experience at the elementary level is preferred.
- Possessing proper certification.

Interested candidates should email a letter of interest, resume, certification(s), three professional references to: Mr. Jason Chirichella, Superintendent/Principal at jchirichella@shmemorial.org.

Deadline for applications: May 31, 2023

www.shmemorial.org